Gardens of Texas: Growing with Resilience

Faced with a challenging climate and increasing weather extremes, how can Texas gardeners adapt? Drawing from the visionary landscapes in her new book, Gardens of Texas, Pam Penick shares how resilient gardeners are embracing change, shifting their plant palette toward native plants, nurturing wildlife, and finding deeper joy in the process. Discover practical strategies for creating gardens that weather the storms and grow stronger — and see how cultivating resilience in your landscape can also cultivate it in yourself.

Monday, November 17, 2025 at The Forum
2120 Speedway Ave, Wichita Falls, TX

Reception begins at 5:30 PM with presentation starting at 6:00 PM
Q & A with book signing to follow
